Numb. 4054

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 14. to Monday September 18. 1704.

Windsor, September 14.

THIS Day Captain Trevor, Commander of Her Majesty's Ship the Triton, arrived here; being sent Express by Sir George Rooke from the Fleet, with Letters to His Royal Highness, dated on Board the Royal Catherine off of Cape St. Vincent, August 27. O. S. 1704. which contain the following Account.

ON the 9th Instant, returning from watering our Ships on the Coast of Barbary to Gibraltar, with little Wind Easterly, our Scouts to the Windward made the Signals of seeing the Enemy's Fleet, which, according to the Account they gave, consisted of 56 Sail, and were about 10 Leagues to Windward of us. A Council of Flag-Officers was called, wherein it was determined to lay to the Eastward of Gibraltar to receive and engage them; But perceiving that Night, by the Report of their Signal-Guns, that they wrought from us, we followed them in the Morning with all the Sail we could make.

On the 11th we forced one of the Enemy's Ships ashore near Fuengorola; the Crew quitted her, set her on Fire, and she blew up immediately. We continued still pursuing them; and the 12th, not hearing any of their Guns all Night, nor seeing any of their Scouts in the Morning, our Admiral had a Jealousy they might make a Double, and by the help of their Gallies slip between us and the Shore to the Westward; so that a Council of War was called, wherein it was resolved, That in Case we did not see the Enemy before Night, we should make the best of our way to Gibraltar; but standing in to the Shore about Noon we discovered the Enemy's Fleet and Gallies to the Westward, near Cape Malaga, going away large. We immediately made all the Sail we could after them, and continued the Chace all Night.

On Sunday the 13th in the Morning, we were within 3 Leagues of the Enemy, who brought to with their Heads to the Southward, the Wind being Easterly, formed their Line, and lay to receive us. Their Line consisted of 52 Ships, and 24 Gallies; they were very strong in the Center, and weaker in the Van and Rear, to supply which, most of the Gallies were divided into those Quarters. In the Center was Monsieur de Thoulouse with the White Squadron; in the Van the White and Blue; and in the Rear the Blue; each Admiral had his Vice and Rear-Admirals. Our Line consisted of 53 Ships; the Admiral, and Rear-Admirals Byngs and Dilks being in the Center, Sir Cloudesly Shovell and Sir John Leake led the Van, and the Dutch the Rear.

The Admiral ordered the Swallow and Panther, with the Lark and Newport, and 2 Fireships, to lie to the Windward of us, that in case the Enemy's Van should push through our Line with their Gallies and Fireships, they might give them some Diversion.

We bore down upon the Enemy in Order of Battel, a little after Ten a Clock, when being about half Gun-shot from them, they set all their Sails at once, and seemed to intend to stretch ahead, and weather us, so that our Admiral, after firing a Chace Gun at the French Admiral to stay for him, of which he took no notice, put the Signal out, and began the Battel, which fell very heavy on the Royal Catherine, the St. George, and the Shrewsbury. About two in the afternoon, the Enemy's Van gave way to ours, and the Battel ended with the Day, when the Enemy went away by the help of their Gallies to the Leeward. In the Night the Wind shifted to the Northward, and in the Morning to the Westward, which gave the Enemy the Wind of us: We lay by all Day within three Leagues of one another, repairing our Defects, and at Night they filed and stood to the Northward.

On the 15th in the Morning the Enemy was got four or five Leagues to the Windward of us; but a little before Noon we had a Breeze of Wind Easterly, with which we bore down on them till four a Clock Afternoon; It being too late to Engage, we brought to, and lay by with our Heads to the Northward all Night.

On the 16th in the Morning, the Wind being still Easterly, hazy Weather, and having no sight of the Enemy, or their Scouts, we filed and bore away to the Westward, supposing they would have gone away for Cadiz; but being advised from Gibraltar, and the Coast of Barbary, that they did not pass the Streights, we concluded they had been so severely treated, as to oblige them to return to Thoulon.

The Admiral says, he must do the Officers the Justice to say, that every Man in the Line did his Duty without the least Umbrage for Censure or Reflection, and that he never observed the true English Spirit so apparent and prevalent in our Seamen, as on this Occasion.

This Battel is so much the more Glorious to Her Majesty's Arms, because the Enemy had a Superiority of 600 great Guns; and likewise the advantage of cleaner Ships, being lately come out of Port; not to mention the great use of their Gallies in Towing on or off their great Ships, and in supplying them with fresh Men as often as they had any killed or disabled: But all these Disadvantages were surmounted by the Bravery and good Conduct of our Officers, and the undaunted Courage of our Seamen.

Windsor

Windsor, September 16. The following Addreſs has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Repreſentatives, Recorder, and approved Men, of the Town of Guilaford in Surry, aſſembled on Thurſday the 7th of September, to celebrate the Day of Thankſgiving for the Victory obtained over the French and Bavarians, by Her Majeſty's Army under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and the Succeſs of Your Royal Fleet under the Command of Sir George Rooke.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit Your ancient Corporation to lay themſelves at Your Royal Feet, with that Duty and Humility which becomes Subjects ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under Your moſt Auſpicious Reign.

It is Your Majeſty's Exemplary Piety and Virtue that hath given us theſe Glorious Victories obtained by Sea and Land; by which the Plains of Germany are cover'd with the Bodies of our Slaughter'd Enemies; and the Rhine and the Danube are tinctur'd with their Blood. The Empire acknowledges Your Majeſty its Guardian and Protector; Spain wants only an Opportunity to be ſo happy; France is reduced to the ſame Extremity and Conſternation, as after the Battels of Creſſy and Poytiers; and the Name of Marlborough is now as terrible as the Black Prince was to their Anceſtors.

As Succeſs and Victory has begun, ſo may the Bleſſing of Health and Peace attend You, with a long and proſperous Reign: And give us Leave, on this Occaſion, to aſſure Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſtand by and ſupport Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

The Two following Addreſſes from the County Palatine of Cheſhire, and the City of Cheſter, were preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable Lieutenant-General Cholmondeley, in the Abſence of the Lord Cholmondeley, Lord Lieutenant of the County, Introduced by the moſt Honourable the Lord-High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace, of the County Palatine of Cheſter, and the Militia Officers of the ſaid County.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the late Glorious Victory, obtained by Your Majeſty's Army under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, againſt the French and Bavarians in Germany, wherein the eminent Courage and Conduct of Your Majeſty's General, and the unparallel'd Bravery of Your Forces employed in that great Action, were equally conſpicuous.

We beg Leave alſo, upon this Occaſion, to aſſure Your Majeſty, That as the Begining of Your Majeſty's Auſpicious Reign hath carried the Glory of the Engliſh Arms beyond that of any of Your Royal Anceſtors; ſo ſhall we chearfully contribute our moſt hearty Prayers and Endeavours, that the Continuance of the ſame may be bleſſed with a Number of Years and Succeſſes, beyond thoſe of our late Renowned Queen Elizabeth, and with that Unanimity and Moderation among all Your Majeſty's Subjects, which we reſolve to practice and promote in our reſpective Stations in this County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Cheſter.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful Subjects, do moſt thankfully acknowledge the continual Favour and Goodneſs of Almighty God, in the many great Advantages and Succeſſes attending Your Majeſty's happy Reign over us; but more eſpecially in the late Signal Victory obtained by Your Majeſty's Forces in Germany, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, in the total Defeat of a more numerous Army of the French and Bavarians united.

As the Fame of this Glorious Victory will render Your Majeſty's Arms, the Conduct of Your Generals, and the Bravery of Your Forces, renowned through the whole World, ſo we hope the Conſequences thereof will expedite the Deliverance of Europe from the Exorbitant Power of France.

We beg leave to make uſe of this welcome Occaſion to aſſure Your Majeſty of our hearty Wiſhes and moſt earneſt Prayers, That the Bleſſings of Heaven may be multiplied upon Your Sacred Perſon, and attend all Your Undertakings; and that Your Majeſty's Life and Reign may be Long, Peaceful and Glorious. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto put our Common Seal of the ſaid City, the Firſt Day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The Addreſs which follows was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkley, Lord Lieutenant, and High-Steward of the County and City and County of Glouceſter.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of Your City of Glouceſter, in Common Council Aſſembled.

WE humbly beg the Liberty (moſt Gracious Sovereign) to aſſure Your Majeſty, That the Succeſs of Your Arms has filled our Hearts with unſpeakable Joy. The Renowned Queen Elizabeth ſaved a Common-wealth; but Your Hand hath Snatch'd a whole Empire from Ruin.

This moſt welcom News was ſurprizing: But when we reflect on the Courage of Your Soldiers, the Conduct of Your General, the Merit of Your Virtues, and the Juſtice of Heaven, we could hope for no leſs than this happy Day: And we ſtill hope for more, becauſe we believe You were anointed to reſtore the Ballance of Europe.

May all Your Majeſty's Subjects aſſiſt in the Diſpatch of this Glorious Work, without Diference or Delay; may You have an uninterrupted Series of Succeſs, and that Your Reign may be long and proſperous; ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of us, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Dated under our Common Seal the 6th day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign. 1704.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Fowy was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Granville Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville, Lord Lieutenant of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free-Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's Borough of Fowy, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, preſume we cannot be too early, nor too zealous in our Congratulations for the happy and glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

We cannot but attribute theſe manifold Bleſſings of Almighty God upon Your Majeſty's Reign, to that exemplary Piety that ſhines through all Your Actions and Intentions; and eſpecially to Your peculiar Care of the Church of England, and Your late ſingular and unexampled Bounty to the Poor Clergy, for which we humbly entreat Your Majeſty to accept our unfeigned Thanks, as true Sons of that excellent and beſt Reformed Church in the World.

Your County of Cornwall was long ſince honour'd with the Diſtinction of Loyal, by Your Royal Grandfather King Charles the firſt, and Your Royal Uncle King Charles the Second, our moſt Gracious Sovereigns: Nor ſhall we ever depart from thoſe principles that may continue our Right to ſo Fame Title.

As this Weſtern part of Your Dominions has been Fruitful in all Ages in Champions for the Crown and Royal Family, as it produc'd ſo many Famous Admirals in the Reign of Your Glorious Predeceſſor Queen Elizabeth, not only to diſcover new Worlds, but to defend the old from the Tyranny of Univerſal Monarchs; and as in this laſter Age, the great and immediate Inſtruments of the Reſtauration were illuſtrious Natives of this and our neighbouring County, ſo we cannot but admire the good Providence of God, who has ordain'd at this time, That the General who now leads Your Armies to Victory, who has not only retrieved the Reputation of the Engliſh Arms, but rais'd it to a Degree of Glory greater than ever, has his Veins full of the Blood of our Country-men, and particulary deſcends from that Name which firſt humbled the Pride of the Spaniard, as he has given the firſt Check to the boundleſs Ambition of France.

Nor do we eſteem it a leſs Happineſs, That the ſame Providence has furniſh'd Your Majeſty with a Perſon from amongſt us, to be entruſted with the Management of Your Revenues, whoſe frugal and faithful Adminiſtration has appeared to be ſuch, both in that high Station, and in Your Councils, that Your People might almoſt believe themſelves in full Peace at home, were it not for the Fame of Your Victories abroad.

May God Almighty continue to proſper Your Majeſty's Arms, which are Gloriouſly employ'd to reſcue and protect Monarchs, and not to diſturb or diſpoſſeſs: May he for ever eſtabliſh Your Throne, by whoſe generous Aſſiſtance, the Thrones of ſo many Princes ſeem deſtined to be eſtabliſh'd: And may the ſame Spirit of Loyalty, Religion and Union, poſſeſs all Your People, that none may render themſelves unworthy the Protection and Bleſſing of ſo Excellent a Queen.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Liskeard, in the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Bridges, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

IN Obedience to Your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, we Your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, of Your Ancient Borough of Liskeard in the County of Cornwall, have this day, with much Chearfulneſs, given publick Thanks to Almighty God, for the great and Glorious rious Victory, by his Bleſſing, lately obtained by the Arms of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, over the French and Bavarians.

We will always heartily pray for the ſame Succeſs on all Your Majeſty's Undertakings, during the Continuance of the preſent War; which we are ſure Your Majeſty entred into for the effectual reducing the Exorbitant Power of the French King, and obtaining a Glorious Peace through Europe; which will tend to the Glory of God, the Honour and Safety of Your Majeſty, and the Good of all Your Subjects.

And we do, on this Occaſion, humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we hope all Your good Subjects throughout Your Kingdom will heartily agree to the Raiſing ſufficient Funds for the carrying on and maintaining ſo juſt and neceſſary a War; and our Repreſentatives in Parliament have our Directions for that purpoſe.

May Your Majeſty long Reign over us, are the hearty Prayers of Your majeſty's moſt obedient Subjects of this Borough.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, this 7th day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's moſt happy and auſpicious Reign over us. Annoq; Dom. 1704.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of New Shoreham was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Pery and Nathaniel Gould Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtable and Inhabitants of the Borough of New-Shoreham in the County of Suſſex.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the late Glorious Victory, obtained by Your Army under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

Whilſt the Terrour of Your Majeſty's Arms is carried into Remote Countries, we who live upon the Sea-Coaſt, even in ſight of Your Enemies, do live all Securely, and Enjoy, with the reſt of Your Subjects, the happy Influences of Your Auſpicious Government.

May the Great God, who hath ſo ſignally Bleſſed the Beginnings of Your Majeſty's Reign with wonderful and amazing Succeſſes, ſtill continue to direct Your Councils, and make You Victorious over all Your Enemies by Sea and Land.

The following Addreſs from the Members of the Council, General Aſſembly, and Field Officers of Her Majeſty's Iſland of Barbadoes, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Briages Eſq; and divers other Gentlemen, Introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Charles Hedges, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Members of Her Majeſty's Council, and General Aſſembly, and the Field Officers of the Regiments of the Militia, of the Iſland of Barbadoes.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE the Members of Your Majeſty's Council, General Aſſembly, and the Field Officers of the Militia of this Your Iſland of Barbadoes, do in moſt humble manner repeat our moſt hearty Thanks to Almighty God for Preſerving Your Sacred Perſon to Sit upon and Rule the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors; and that amongſt the reſt of Your Majeſty's Subjects, Your Benign Influence has extended even to us, in this remote Part of Your Dominions: And we do moſt Gratefully acknowledge, That this Poor declining Iſland, has, in a particular Manner, ſhared of Your Royal Bounty, by a moſt Charitable and Generous Granting the Petition of the Inhabitants, which could never before be obtained from any of Your Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors; whichwas, That the Duty of four and an half per Cent. raiſed on the Product of this Iſland, Exported from hence, ſhould be applied to the Uſes of this Iſland: The good Effects of which great Favour, we are already moſt ſenſible of; and do moſt humbly pray, That Your Majeſty will be Graciouſly pleaſed to Order, That there be no Relaxation of this Your Seaſonable Bounty; the Condition of the Fortifications, Breaſt-Works, and other moſt neceſſary Occaſions, requiring the ſame.

And as we do return our moſt ſincere Thanks to Your Royal Majeſty, for the further Convincance of Your Care of, and Bounty to us, by Augmenting the Yearly Sallary of the Governor of this Iſland out of Your own Money, which was formerly done by the Publick here, and to the Misfortune of this Iſland has been often carried ſuch a length, that the People were thereby much diſquieted; from which Grievance You have been pleaſed for the future to Relieve us; ſo at the ſame time we do in a moſt humble Manner, and with all Joy, repreſent to Your Majeſty, our great Satisfaction and Happineſs in this Government under his Excellency Sir Bevil Granville Your Majeſty's Governor here, who has with great Chearfulneſs and Duty complied with Your Majeſty's Order, and has utterly Declined the unlawful Shifts for Gain, which we fear have formerly been too often practiſed here, to the great Prejudice of the Inhabitants; and has ever ſince his Arrival conſtantly applied himſelf to the Adminiſtration of this Government both Civil and Military; which defeating the Purpoſes of ſome Corrupt Men, has given him great Diſturbances and Interruption in his Government: Such Ill-affected Perſons, for their own private and unlawful Ends, endeavouring to Sow Diſſentions and Miſunderſtandings amongſt Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, which might have proved of fatal Conſequence, had not his prudent Conduct and Diſpoſition of Affairs here prevented the ſame; and we are in great hopes, with Your Majeſty's Royal Aſſiſtance and Encouragement, will effectually do ſo for the future; it appearing plainly to us, That his whole Aim and Care has been bent to Advance and Preſerve Your Majeſty's Honour, to Maintain and Promote the Intereſt of England, over this Iſland, againſt the unconſiderate Endeavours of ſuch Indifferent Men to violate the ſame; which will appear manifeſt, if Your Majeſty will graciouſly Condeſcend to Inſpect the Repreſentations tranſmitted of his Adminiſtration, ſince his Acceſſion to this Government.

And We do moſt humbly Implore Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Protection, Juſtification and Encouragement of ſo faithful a Servant to Your Majeſty; who, as a Bleſſed Inſtance to us, of the beginning of Your Reign, is the remarkable and commendable Inſtance of a Governour, who has ſo abſolutely diſregarded his own private Intereſt and Gain, that he has been at great Expence and Pains to Unite the Inhabitants for the Promotion of Your Majeſty's Service, the Peace and Well-being of this Government upon all Occaſions; for which Reaſons we humbly repreſent and pray, That Your Majeſty will be Graciouſly pleaſed to have further ſuitable Conſideration of him in this dear and expenſive Iſland, both for Your Majeſty's Honour and his Comfort.

And that Your Majeſty may be always faithfully and well ſerved; and that God Almighty may preſerve You long to Reign over us; that Your wiſe and good Government may redound to Your own Immortal Praiſe and Happineſs, and the Welfare of all Your Majeſty's Dominions, is the hearty and ſincere Prayer of, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and moſt Dutiful Subjects.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Falmouth, September 11. Yeſterday ſailed hence to cruize the Great Roſe-Boom Privateer of Flushing, of 32 Guns; as alſo the Diligence Pacquet-Boat, Captain Dudly, and the Queen Pacquet-Boat, Captain Culverdine Commanders, the former to the Weſt-Indies, the latter for Liſbon, the Wind being at North: But this morning they were both forced back again by a ſtrong Wind at S. S. W.

Plimouth, September 12. This evening came in here Her Majeſty's Ship the Deptford from Spithead, and 7 or 8 Veſſels from Poole and other Places, with Maſt for this Place: They left Sir Stafford Fairborne, with ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships, off of this Port, who are now coming in.
